The Journal of Humanities and Social Sciences Research (JHSSR), eISSN 2682-9096 is a peer-reviewed, international journal that uses an open access model. It publishes original contributions in the field of humanities and social sciences. The journal serves as a place to share new thinking on analysis, theory, policy, and practice that relates to issues that influence innovative research and education. We believe that our journal can make a significant contribution to the advancement of the field and help address some of the pressing challenges facing society today.

JHSSR is the official journal supported by academics from various educational institutions from 35 countries across the globe. This remarkable statistic clearly shows that this journal is truly an international journal with diverse authorship as well as editorship. It is published by B.P. JHSSR aims to promote interdisciplinary studies in humanities and social science and become a recognised leading journal in the world. Our objective is to unite researchers undertaking comparative projects. JHSSR has as its core principles: a) innovative research; b) engagement with theory; and c) diverse voices in terms of authorship.

We strive to maintain a high standard of scientific objectivity, and we ensure that all submitted articles undergo a stringent yet relatively rapid double-blind peer-review process, which translates to benefits such as timeliness of publication, widespread dissemination, high visibility, and likelihood of high citations and broader impacts. JHSSR follows code of conduct stipulated by the Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE). Alongside a mission-driven Editor-in-chief, the globally diverse Editorial Board works with prominent scientific community to create a fast moving and rigorous editorial review process by delivering robust decisions in the shortest possible time using double blind peer review.

Our goal is to foster a vibrant and dynamic community of social scientists including experts in psychology, political science, economics, sociology, anthropology, archaeology, geography, and history by providing a forum for the exchange of ideas and dissemination of high-quality research results.
